Alice M. Alger, 1896-1917.

Alice M. Alger, oldest daughter of Thomas B. and Mattie Waldo, was born on the 15th of July, 1896, in the old farmhouse situated on the Chelsea road. Graduating from Williamstown high school in 1910, she continued her education at Montpelier seminary, where she headed her class and graduated with honors in 1913.

In the fall of 1914 she was married to Fred Alger and went to live on a farm which he had purchased in Underhill Eighteen months afterward they returned to Williamstown and lived in the village until last July, when they bought and took possession of Ray Thresher's farm on south hill. Living practically all her life in this town, growing up among its people, a girl with splendid intellect and happy disposition, Mrs. Alger was very popular, and the whole came known that she had passed away on Sunday evening, Aug. 19. Hers was a life of definite Christian profession, and making 41/2 per cent. for the year ending the people of the township paid a fine July 31, 1917. tribute to her character when they crowded the Methodist church of which she was a member and covered its altars payable to the treasurer at the office of

The tears of her friends and the sor row of those who knew her best were a eulogy that needed not to be expressed words. Tenderly they carried the casket to "God's acre" on the hillside, and there amidst the flowers and the grasses the remains were lowered into their long resting place. Mrs. Alger is survived by her husband her mother and sister, Edna, and grandparents, and the profound sympathy of the entire community goes out to them in this, their day of sorrow.
